Hello Readers!

And such spring-like weather! We do hope frost won't come soon and kill the blossoms that are putting in their appearance.

And can Commencement be far off? Not with the recent announcement from the Principal's office of 1956 Honor Graduates. Valedictorian is Roberta Lewis; Salutatorian, Effie McCoy; and tieing for Third Honors are Viola Johnson and Rosa Jones. Congratulations to these very worthy seniors. The prize comes to him who labors.

We are very glad to welcome a new instructor, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, who will be Fifth Grade teacher. She is a graduate of Virginia Union University and is from Mathews County, Virginia.

In the championship game of the Girls' Intramural Basketball Tournament, the winners were Grade 12 who won by a score of 32-20 over Grade 11, the runners-up. Rosa Jones was high scorer with 20 points. Others on the senior team were: Laura Hubbard, Henreitta Ferguson as forwards; Helen McCoy, Gloria Jenkins and Viola Johnson as guards. All the teams played well and competition was keen. The tournament was a farewell to basketball for the season.

In the Faculty game last Wednesday night, our Faculty won over Buckingham in both games. The men's team played first and won by a score of 28-22, with such players as Messrs. E. T. Johnson, R. E. Patrick, N. H. Miller, Robert Watson, and H. E. Watkins. It was most interesting. The Carver women's team won by a score of 22-11, with Mrs. H. E. Foster high scorer. A large group of spectators witnessed the games.

Thursday, March 15, the Seniors and Juniors make their trip to Colonial Williamsburg. They are anxiously waiting and anticipating a most enjoyable, educational trip. The scenes on T. V.'s "Today" show, starring Dave Garroway last Tuesday morning, featured Colonial Williamsburg. Many members of these classes saw it. And Hampton Institute's choral sang — such rich voices. All this adds to the general interest in the trip.

May Day this year will be held May 4, on our school campus. Plans were laid at the County Teachers' meeting last Monday night by our Supervisor, Mrs. Mozella J. Price. This is always a big event in the school program. At this meeting, the final report of the Dimes was made. $94.00 ed, plus an additional ing a total of $102.00. March of Dimes money the recent break-in at Co would have made the much larger. Remarks by Mrs. Price on the im our health drive in the reection of Miss Hester are studying "Life in week. Supervisors Ponder Road - School Budgets

The March meeting of the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors was held yesterday, and it was a lengthy one. Principal matters considered were pertaining to roads and the school budget, and further meetings will be held on each.

The board decided to seek an opinion from the Attorney-General of Virginia on the legality of a school budget with funds set up on a month-to-month basis. A number of counties have proposed budgets on this basis for the next school term, but the local board desired more information on an interpretation of state statutes on the point. There was some feeling that such procedure would be in conflict with the statute concerning the county budgets and laying of the tax levy.

The board contemplates no change in the tax levy for the new budget.

A called meeting will be held as soon as Commonwealth's Attorney George Abbitt Jr. secures an opinion from the attorney general.

The tax levy has to be set in April, after due notice has been published and a hearing held on the budget proposed.

The board heard a number of citizens who appeared in behalf of some county road projects. The plea for more hard-surfaced roads indicates that funds will not be available to grant all of the requests, as the county gets only about six miles per year in allocations.

The board adopted a resolution approving use of federal aid funds available to the county on the road from 613 at Herndon's Store, to intersection with 683 at Beckham. About three miles is involved.

Delegations appeared seeking the hard-surfacing of many secondary roads in the county. Twelve different projects were asked. These included; 647, 3 miles; 638, 2.1 miles; 674, .4 mile; 665, 1.6 mile widened and curves removed; 654, hard-surfacing from 24 to rock; 627, 2.4 miles; 634, 2.9 miles; 627, and 633, 6.5 miles; 626, 7.0 miles. Three projects asked for were for new mileage to be added to the secondary system.

The Resident Engineer will consider proposed projects in the preparation of his budget recommendations for the use of available funds. A further meeting will have to be held on this matter.

Seawell Speaks at F.F.A. Dinner

William H. Seawell, Director of Instruction, Mecklenburg County Public Schools, advised the F. F. A. boys to "Love Yourselves" in his talk at the Robert E. Lee Future Farmers of America Father and Son Banquet here last Friday night. "Love yourselves enough that you will do those things which will make you the best possible person that you can be. Yesterday is but a dream," he said, "and tomorrow is but a vision. Today is the important time. Live now as though it were the most important moment of your life—because it is. Whatever you are doing, do it to the very best of your ability."

Ralph Reynolds, chapter president and winner of the chapter public speaking contest, also talked at the banquet, speaking on "Our Relationship with Soil." Ralph was also master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Fred Caldwell, Chapter Sentinel, gave the welcome to the banquet, and Wesley Newcomb, Chapter Vice-president, introduced the guests. The chapter program of work highlights were given by Frank Inge, Chapter Treasurer, and Bobby Barger, Chapter Reporter.

Entertainment in the form of piano selections was rendered by Bobby Barger. Mr. H. B. Pack presented F. F. A. Awards to students for various accomplishments. Floyd Fleshman Jr. received the Star Chapter Farmer of the Year Award. Ralph Reynods won the Public Speaking Award; Fred Caldwell the Livestock Farmer Award, and Richard Krantz the Dairy Farmer Award. Frank Inge was presented the Soil and Water Management Award, which he won last year.

The banquet was served in the elementary school cafeteria by the Appomattox Garden Club ladies.

Work Begins Here On New Med. Building

Work has begun upon the erection of a modern brick building on Court Street, which will be occupied by Dr. Stanley Boyce, M. D., and Dr. S. R. Lawson, D. D. S.

The building, being erected by Fred H. Lawson, is on property opposite Appomattox Frozen Food Locker, and next to the Abbitt office building.

Quarters for the two doctors will be on the ground floor of the 73x 24 brick building. On the second floor there will be three apartments, with outside entrance.

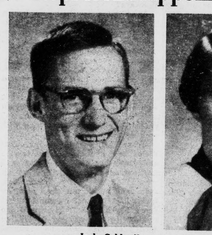
It is planned for the building to be completed by June 1. Dr. Lawson is now completing his studies, and will come to Appomattox this June to begin the practice of dentistry. Dr. Boyce now has offices in the Babcock building.

Local Ground Observers Held Practice Drill

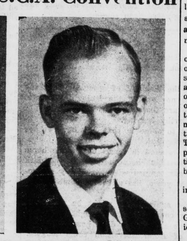
On Sunday, March 11, the local Ground Observer Corps practiced in a routine exercise. During this exercise, 33 flight tracks were reported to Roanoke, and the following persons took part: C. F. P. Crawley Jr., Buddy Conner, Bobby Conner, Bill Caldwell, Frank Burke, Freddie Mitchell, Dick Hamilton, Frank Inge, Kenneth Marshall Bobby Barger, Brian Thomas, Jr. Beasley Johnson, Tom Holland and Chief Observer John Holland.

Since January 1, the following observers have received their wings: Brian Thomas and Freddie Mitchell; and Dick Hamilton has received his 100 hour award. According to Chief Observer John Holland, the Appomatox G. O. C. Post has completed over 400 hours of watch since he has been C. O.

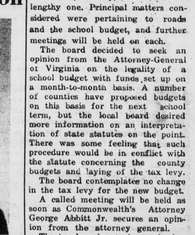
To Represent Appomattox at S.C.A. Convention



. . . . Jack Caldwell



. . . . Janice McCleany



. . . . Bill Carson

Pictured above are delegates to represent Appomattox High School's Student Co-operative Association, at the State S. C. A. convention. This year's convention is being held at Longwood College, in Farmville, on March 16 and 17.

The A. H. S. delegation is to lead one of the discussion groups. Their topic for discussion is to be, "How can the Student Council involve the student body in its projects?"

Bill Carson is the present president of the local S. C. A. Jack Caldwell and Janice McClenny have recently been elected president and secretary, respectively, for next year.

WOULD COST $3,483 TO REPLACE MONUMENT AT COURT HOUSE

The Board of Supervisors yesterday heard a proposal from a dealer in stones and monuments for replacing the marble figure of a Confederate soldier on the base in the local court house yard. The figure was demolished last year when Hurricane Hazel blew a huge tree over the monument. It is understood that replacement of the figure, made of Italian marble and carved in Italy, would cost $3,483. The board suggested that perhaps private funds could be secured for this desirable project.

UDC SCHOLARSHIPS

Announcement is made by the local Chapter to aid worthy students of Confederate lineage in furthering their education.

In order to qualify, an applicant must be a lineal descendant of a Confederate Veteran.

Qualified applicants are urged to make early application for these scholarships. Complete details may be secured from Miss Julia Asher, Chapter Historian, or Mrs. E. Carroll Smith, President.

P.-T.A. Teams Play Concord Friday Night

A basketball game has been scheduled at the Appomattox High School gymnasium for Friday night, March 16, with members of the Concord High School as visiting team to challenge the "Bloomer Girls" of the Appomattox P.-T. A. team.

The "Bloomer Girls" made their debut in basketball here recently, by winning over the "Shorty Shorts." a team representing the Woman's Club. Only members of the Appomattox P.-T. A. can participate in the forthcoming game, which eliminated some of the "Bloomer Girls." However, some members of the "Shorty Shorts" will play, to make up the following team: Forwards, Mesdames W. M. Abbitt, Margaret Wilson, R. B. Parris, William W. Burke, Dot Coleman, Lucille Harvey; Guards Mesdames Grace Cunningham, Neola B. Smith, Bess Pulliam, Twyman Coleman, Mitchell Lewis, Jessie Guill, Lula Goodrich, Ethel Evans and Beulah Robinson.

The proceeds of the home game will go to the Elementary School P.-T. A. Admission will be 35c and 60c.

Appomattox members will be the visiting team at Concord, at a later scheduled game.

The P.-T. A. "Daddies" are slowly limbering up their muscles and the prospects are good for the basketball game with Concord here Friday night. No starting line-up has been selected for the men, but "Daddy" Henry Barger is sure to see action. On Monday night at a practice session, George Abbitt and Tommy Martin looked good, along with veterans David Trent and Vernell Mitchell. Watt Abbitt proved that Washington has not softened him up, and he says he will be ready to play Friday night. "Stan" Stanley and Vernon Bryant are also making strong bids for a place on the team. Several prospective players have not been able to get to practice yet, but among the hopefuls are: C. T. Moses Jr., Ivey Holland, Jerry Miller, Willie Morris, John Cole, Roy Robertson, Richard D. Robinson, Vern Torrence, John Oxford and Leonard Anderson.

Managers DeWitt Evans and Joe Terry are pleased with the interest being shown and are expecting the Appomattox "Daddies" to make a strong showing against Concord.

Elem. P. T.A. Meets Tonight

The P.-T. A. of the Appomattox Elementary School will meet Thursday, March 15, at 8:00 o'clock, in the auditorium of the elementary school. There will be a panel discussion. Clubs Continue Safety Drive

The Home Demonstration Clubs of Appomattox County announced this week plans for a poster contest on Traffic Safety for all school children.

These posters must denote some phase of Traffic Safety, either automobile, school bus, pedestrian, etc. The closing date for the posters to be submitted is April 15. After judging, the winning posters will be displayed during National Home Demonstration Week. There will be a cash prize offered for the best poster on Traffic Safety by any high school pupil, and also a prize for the best poster from an elementary school pupil.

Announcement is also made of a Reaction and Braking Test Demonstration to be held here on April 14. This demonstration is being sponsored in the county by home demonstration clubs. The test car will be furnished by the Nationwide Insurance Company, and it is hoped that as many adult and teen - age drivers as possible will participate. Further details will be announced in this newspaper.
